

this is response to the idea of doing a forum on addressing the no call list. The law in Indiana is great one of the few that has been miracle from beng houndd by unwanted sale calls. Please do not weaken this law while construction one to cover all states